

Marin Horse Council

25TH ANNUAL HORSE COURSE

THE MARIN HORSE COUNCIL PRESENTS

Why Does My Horse Do That?

February 27, 2010 at the Marin Humane Society
171 Bel Marin Keys Blvd. | Novato
Registration at 9 am. Course ends 12:30 pm.

Learn to think like your Horse! Do you ever wonder why your horse spooks at something he/she has seen before, refuses to trailer load or be tied up and, of course, afraid of those scary puddles?

GUEST SPEAKERS INCLUDE:

DIANA THOMPSON. Diana Thompson has worked for 30 years as a professional horse trainer, giving lectures and seminars during her career. She is a certified massage practitioner with hours of training in equine anatomy, acupressure, and flower essence therapy. She has apprenticed in a Traditional Chinese Medicine protocol. She teaches students and trains horses at her Hands-On Horse Care training center in Santa Rosa. For more information on her programs and clinic schedules, call her office at 707-542-4646 or visit her website: www.dianathompson.com

GRANT MILLER, D.V.M. "Equine Vision". Dr. Miller will discuss how horses physically see the world around them and how it affects their behavior.

JIM McDERMOTT. With Practical Horsemanship. Jim will discuss unwanted behaviors and suggestions on how to deal with them.

BACK BY POPULAR DEMAND: Here is the opportunity to see ongoing presentations — Bandaging and Wrapping, First Aid, Bits, Nutrition, and Hoof Care and learn how to save money from experts.
